

Iowa Army National Guard's 185th CSSB Announces Inaugural Recipient of the Fairfield High School Warrior Citizen Award recipient

FAIRFIELD, IOWA, – The Iowa Army National Guard's 185th Combat Sustainment Support Battalion (CSSB) is proud to announce that Bailey Ann Belzer is the first-ever recipient of the Fairfield High School Warrior Citizen Award.

This prestigious new award recognizes a student who exemplifies outstanding leadership, a commitment to community service, and personal character aligned with the seven U.S. Army Values and the spirit of the Warrior Ethos.

The Sentinel Leadership Award is based on three core pillars:

- Service: A selfless dedication to making a positive impact on the broader community.
- Character: Living the U.S. Army Values of Loyalty, Duty, Respect, Selfless Service, Honor, Integrity, and Personal Courage.
- Tenacity: Demonstrating the perseverance and unwavering commitment of the Warrior Ethos.

After a thorough review of nominations by the 185th CSSB selection committee, Bailey was chosen for her exceptional embodiment of these values. Her dedication to her academics, her community, and her personal principles make her the ideal inaugural recipient.

Please join us in congratulating Bailey Ann Belzer on this significant achievement and for setting a high standard of excellence for her peers at Fairfield High School and in the community.
